

Field Notes

The Weekly Newsletter of the Community School for Place-Based Education

September 8, 2023 | Year 10, Issue 1

Thank You

Greg from Maine Fish & Wildlife for helping the Sweet Ferns solve our Natural History Mystery, and to Sam Shaw, Beals Lobster Pier, Cranberry Cove Ferry, and the Bar Harbor Historical Society for making Island Immersion Week a fantastic success!

Reminders

Please send all gear to school with Grades 1-8 students by Monday, 9/11.

If you are interested in being a chaperone or a driver for the Grades 1-8 trip to the Common Ground Fair on 9/22, please contact Sydnie White and Ashley McLean, our parent volunteer coordinators.

Here's to an amazing first week of school!

Margaux and Edith enjoying the ferry ride to Islesford

Arlo untangles a treasure of fishing line

Patience leads the Alpines to a magical island house and sculpture garden

Charlee seeks new heights in the Gnome Woods

Greg from Fish & Wildlife shares his natural history knowledge with the Sweet Ferns

Mr. Kreg directs his assistants to prepare a new cob structure

Eli and Kaleb show off their crab petting zoo on the far side of Bar Island

Alpines savoring the spectacular view from Islesford

Cultivating a Sense of Self, Place, and Community